MADDEN WINS TWO RACES.

RADTKE SCORES HIS FIRST BENNING VICTORY ON EAST END.

Lord Boanerges Takes Opening Race in Fast Time—Garterknot Triumphs in the Steeplechase—Washington News.

Washington, D. C., March 27.—The unexpected happened today when Lord Boanerges won the first race at five and a half furlongs in 1:08. Lord Boanerges carried 107 pounds and simply ran away from his opponents, which included such fast sprinters as Quadrille, Gold Sifter and Toodles. It was a smart performance, considering the going and marks the colt as a pretty shifty three-year-old.

The colors of John E. Madden were seen in front in two races. Dead Gone, at a long price, was an easy winner of the two-year-old race, but East End had to be ridden out to catch the swift-footed Nettie Carita and barely won in the closing strides. This was Radtke's first winning mount for the meeting and the first time he has ridden under his second-call contract to the Hitchcock-Madden Stable.

Jockey Englander rode a couple of winners and was just nosed out on Nettie Carita. This youngster is coming to the front rapidly. Mountain also scored again while Miller did not ride a winner.

The steeplechase was a well contested race and was won by the best horse under present conditions. There is little doubt, however, that Gus Straus will beat this kind when he is thoroughly wound up.

Black Domino, Perry Belmont's candidate for the Dinner Stakes Saturday, worked a half this morning in 5:02 and is now looked upon as a decided factor for the race. She has improved wonderfully in the last two weeks. August Belmont will not have a starter. Miller will have the mount on Billie Hibbs.

A fairly promising program is offered for tomorrow, with such speedy ones as Tackle, Pater, Slickaway; Giles, Servile, Work-a-Day; Orphan Lad, Puritan Girl, Sally K.; Essex II., Lysistrata, Navajo; Venus, Pioneer, Lone Hand; Old Colony, Flare and Adaline B. showing in the entry lists, and holding out assurance of good racing.

OAKLAWN WILL CLOSE SATURDAY.

Dan Stuart Makes Official Announcement—Gate Receipts Dwindle to Nothing.

Hot Springs, Ark., March 27.—After a conference with Louis A. Cella and John Condon, conducted by long distance telephone to St. Louis and Chicago, Dan A. Stuart made the official announcement today that the meeting at Oaklawn will terminate Saturday next. "We would have continued the meeting to April 13, as originally intended, but the constant harassing by those opposed to what they consider violation of the state law has caused the gate receipts to dwindle to little better than nothing," said Mr. Stuart. "The horsemen have assured me that they are satisfied that we have done everything possible to fulfill our promises. Saturday will mark the forty-eighth day of racing, the same number of days we raced last year."

Judge Maginn was called before the grand jury this morning and they did not conclude their examination of him until the first race at Oaklawn had been run. His place in the judges' stand was taken for that race by paddock judge Westfall. There were no arrests at the track this afternoon. The bookmakers walked about as usual. They had little to do. Only the regulars were in attendance. Five of the six favorites were defeated. Great Pirate won in an impressive manner and many shrewd horsemen predict a good future for him.

The exodus of horsemen will begin Friday. R. L. Thomas will ship his string to Memphis. P. T. Chinn will depart Saturday for Sheephead Bay. Fred Luzader, Stubbs Brothers and G. W. Jones will go direct to Louisville.

ROBIN HOOD WINS AFTER LONG REST.

Takes Handicap in Fast Time—Rebel Queen Equals a Track Record.

New Orleans, La., March 27.—Robin Hood, making his first appearance in public since October 10 last, at Belmont Park, won the handicap, the feature race at the Fair Grounds this afternoon. He ran the five-eighths of a mile in 1:00 and beat his eight opponents in decisive fashion. On the supposition that the horse was not ready for a bruising struggle, Robin Hood's chances were not taken seriously by the rank and file. J. P. Mayberry and his friends, however, knew that the old sprinter had worked five furlongs last week at City Park in 1:00 and profited accordingly. Robin Hood ran coupled with John Smulski, a horse that Mayberry is preparing for an eastern campaign. John Smulski had not run since the spring meeting at Memphis last year. He left the post flatfooted, but in the final quarter closed up in resolute fashion and will undoubtedly show to much better advantage over a longer distance of ground.

In the second race Rebel Queen equalled Mollie Montrose's track record for four and a half furlongs by running the distance in 54. Outrun in the first quarter, she came from behind and, after being carried wide when entering the homestretch, finished gamely. This filly is improving right along and bids fair to make good the promise she held out in the early days of the meeting.

The sixth race furnished the best contest of the afternoon. Morales and Royal Breeze, racing like a team, were head and head for the entire trip and it was not until the last few strides that Morales managed to poke his head in front and won by that margin.

French Empress died at the Fair Grounds this morning of blood poisoning.

A fairly good card is provided for tomorrow, and with such useful racers as Monis, Rena P., Mary Buchanan; Odd Trick, Decklaw, Dinemock; Finesse, Lady Caroline II., Lute Foster; Envoy, Quinn Brady, Gold Circle; Belle Strome, Telescope, Donna; Allonby, Arly Van, Mollie Ball; Mary Morris, Peroniere and Kaiserhoff among those likely to start, the excellent racing of the present week should be continued.

"CENTURY CHANCES" ARE ONE-TWO.

Unusual Results in First Race at Oakland—Edwin Gum Wins the Feature.

Oakland, Cal., March 27.—From a speculative point of view the result in the first race at Oakland today was decidedly sensational and unusual. Lassen, at 100 to 1, scoring an easy victory over another century chance in Dr. Rowell. The well-backed public choices were all beaten off. The finish in the two-year-old race that followed was the most spectacular of the meeting, inches separating the first three. Love of Gold received the decision. The feature affair, the handicap at a mile and a sixteenth, fourth on the card, was captured in decisive fashion by that really good horse Edwin Gum. He carried top weight and disposed of the quartette of sterling performers opposed to him in a manner that qualifies him for handicaps on the metropolitan turf. Rightful, palpably unfit to race, was unable to raise a respectable gallop.

Ideal weather conditions prevailed and the track is improving rapidly. Spring Ban, an eligible in the third race, was taken with a sudden attack of the lockjaw and excused by the stewards.

Jockey Leroy Williams has laid off. He expects to resume saddle work at the Aqueduct meeting. W. B. Jennings is reported to have said that he would prefer charges against him and Williams' friends are apprehensive that his application for a license may be denied by the Jockey Club.

Bookmaker Frank Bain has quit the turf and transferred his attention to the gold fields. Koerner was set down for two days. Frankie Neil, the feather weight fighter, had a close call while exercising his recent purchase, Celeres, yesterday morning. The horse bolted with him and pitched him headlong into a creek. Neil escaped with a bruised wrist and several other slight injuries. The horse received a bad shaking up.

Good weather in promise will soon raise the general standard of starters here and for tomorrow some improvement is visible, such tried performers as Willie T., Husky, Jeremiah; Kruka, Yank, Joyful; Mitre, Tetanus, Cheers; Eduardo, Bonar, Briarhorpe; Lord Nelson, Bonnie Reg, Meada; Lisaro, Gateway and Cloudlight among the entries, being sufficient to justify a good attendance.

H. Forsland.

BRIGHT WEATHER AT LOS ANGELES.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 27.—The weather was bright and clear today and a large crowd saw the racing. Masedo took the first race and was well thought of, notwithstanding the report circulated that his legs were in a precarious condition and that he was liable to break down. He won all the way and pulled up sound. Old Money Muss was pitched-forked into the fifth race with but ninety-seven pounds and made good.

Seven races are scheduled for tomorrow and there will be quantity if not quality to appeal to the public and with such performers as Barato, Merry Sport, San Alvarado; Laura F. M., Fugurtha, Rosi Ni Ni; Nappa, Common Sue, Belchamber; Fireball, Mintia, Giovanni Balerio; Adonis, Jack Adams, Fontasta; Lile B., Sun Mark, Rocky; Needful, Joyner, and Golden Light among the probable starters, the racing is likely to prove moderately useful.

E. F. O'Malley.

TO BUY LEXINGTON TRACK.

Lexington, Ky., March 27.—Malt J. Winn left tonight for Louisville, saying that he is confident that a spring meeting will be held here April 27 to May 4. The Blue Grass Fair Association has abandoned the effort to buy the Kentucky Association course and Max Samuelson and other turfmen began a movement today which it is expected will result in the purchase of the property by an organization similar to that which conducted racing here in the old days. The price at which the property is held by the Brown estate is $70,000. This option will expire Sunday midnight. The first payment required is $25,000 cash. It is believed this will be raised tomorrow.

FULLER SELLS FIVE HORSES.

New Orleans, La., March 27.—These horses from the stable of J. W. Fuller were sold by auction in the paddock before racing began at the Fair Grounds today:

The latter broke slowly and ran sluggishly for the first six furlongs, then moved up fast on the outside, but swerved badly in the last seventy-five yards under urging. George E. Milner, in a long stretch drive, finished gamely. Woodthorpe showed speed, but tired. Stoessel ran one of his bad races. The winner was entered for $600; no bid. ### THAT CANADIAN BETTING DECISION.

As a matter of importance to racing and in racing jurisprudence the recent decision of the Supreme Court of Ontario is here given in full. It was at first widely printed that the decision was a great blow to Canadian racing, but consideration of its full text shows that it is simply nothing more than an annoyance. In essence the decision is that betting within a racetrack enclosure on races run over the track is legal, but not if carried on from a fixed booth or box such as bookmakers ordinarily use. It is a fine example of legal hairsplitting under which the layers and backers must amble about from place to place while betting; something after the Benning style. The decision was not unanimous, three out of five judges concurring.
Chief Justice Fitzpatrick handed down the following decision in behalf of the majority:

This case comes before us by way of appeal from a judgment of the Court of Appeal for Ontario, which confirmed a conviction by the Police Magistrate for the city of Toronto on a case reserved for the opinion of that court. A statement of the facts will be found in 12 Ontario Law Reports, page 615. The offense with which the defendants were charged before the Police Magistrate was, as stated in the reserved case, that of keeping a disorderly house, to wit: a common betting house. Section 197 of the criminal code defines a common betting house "as a house, office or other place opened, kept or used for the purpose of betting between persons resorting thereto and the owner, occupier or keeper thereof." Section 198 enacts that every one is guilty of an indictable offense and liable to one year's imprisonment who keeps a common betting house as herein-before defined.

It has been found as a fact by the Police Magistrate, admitted by all the Judges below, and not seriously denied by counsel for defendants at the argument here, that the betting booth used by the defendants was held upon the authorities (Dow-ell vs. Kempton Park, 1889, A. C. 143, and Brown vs.
Patch, 1889, 1 Q. B. 892), to be a place within the meaning of section 197. The defendants were convicted by the police magistrate on the ground that to use such a betting booth as was described by the witnesses for the purpose of betting between persons resorting thereto, and the owner, occupier or keeper thereof, is an indictable offense under sections 197 and 198 of the criminal code.

On a reserved case the decision was upheld by the Court of Appeal for Ontario, Meredith, J., and Garrow, J., dissenting. It was not denied that the defendants used the booths in question for the purpose of betting with all comers, but it was put forward as a defense that the booths or movable stands having been erected on the premises of an incorporated racing association to be used for the purpose of making bets during the actual progress of a race meeting brought the defendants within the proviso of section 204.

Section 204 declares every one guilty of an indictable offense, who—
(a) Uses or knowingly allows any part of any premises under his control to be used for the purpose of recording or registering any bet or wager or selling any pool, or

(b) Keeps, exhibits or employs in any part of any premises under his control any device or apparatus for the purpose of recording any bet, or water, etc., or (c) Becomes the custodian or depositor of any money wagered, or

(d) Records or registers any bet or wager.
By sub-section 2 of section 204 it is expressly declared that the provisions of the section shall not extend to bets between individuals or to bets made on the race course of an incorporated association during the actual progress of a race meeting. These words were added as an amendment when the criminal code was enacted in 1892.

Bets between individuals are not illegal at common law, and the provisions of this section do not extend to bets between individuals or to bets made
on the race course of an incorporated association during the actual progress of a race meeting. I quite agree that the amendment of 1892 was intended to reserve the race courses of incorporated associations as places where bets might be recorded and registered, and any apparatus or structure used for the more conveniently recording such bet or bets providing this was done during the actual progress of a race meeting, were exempted from the operation of that section.

But to use a place for the purpose of recording or registering bets or wagers is something entirely different from using a place for the purpose of betting between persons resorting thereto and the owner or occupant thereof.

Bets between individuals or bets made on the race course of an incorporated association during the actual progress of a race meeting can be recorded in any place used for that purpose, but to keep a place, whether within or without the grounds of a racing association for the purpose of betting, whether during the progress of a race meeting or not, is an offense under section 197.

In my opinion two distinct and separate statutory offenses are created by sections 197 and 204, and that which may be invoked successfully as a defense in one case cannot avail in the other. To keep a place for making bets which may be recorded at that place or elsewhere and to keep a place for recording bets wherever made, are distinct and separate acts, each of which have been made offenses, and each of which are declared to subject the offenders to different penalties.

The exception created by sub-section 2 of section 204, with respect to anything therein, does not apply to those places that are kept for the purpose of betting. I do not understand the rule of construction to be that all the sections of the code dealing with nuisances are to be read together to see how they can be made to harmonize any more than the sections dealing with offenses against the person or against property. Distinct and separate acts are by these sections declared to be common nuisances, and the only question to be considered is, do the facts proved in evidence support the charge as laid in each particular case?

No useful purpose can be served by going over the ground already covered by the Chief Justice of Ontario in the Court of Appeal. I quite agree with him that the intention of Parliament, which can only be gathered from the language it has used, was to exempt from the operation of section 204, betting on race courses controlled by incorporated associations during the actual progress of a race, but not to sanction the existence of betting houses on such race courses at such times and under such circumstances. Section 197 makes no exception, at all times and under all circumstances betting houses are prohibited, and it is not for this court to introduce into this clause qualifying expressions which the Legislature has not chosen to put there.

The dissenting opinion filed by Judge Davis in behalf of himself and Judge Groulx sensibly said in part:

"In my opinion the special privilege or permission conceded by the sub-section to carry on betting in a special place and at a special time and with reference to special races, necessarily permitted all acts ordinarily essential to the carrying out of the substantial purposes.

"If the amendment made to the exempting subsection, contemporaneously with the introduction of the new sections 197 and 198, penalizing the common betting house did not operate to exempt betting made and recorded at such house or place when confined within the limitations expressed in the amendment then it appears to me to be quite meaningless because all betting made between individuals had already been exempted, as also all bets which were payable to the owner of the horse racing.
The only effect of the amendment could be to extend the sanction of the clause to betting at the common betting house made between the keeper of the house and outside parties, when erected on the race grounds and which betting was confined within special limitations expressed in the amendment.

"Keeping a house or place for the purpose of betting between persons who resort thither to bet with the keeper of such house or place is an indictable offense within section 197 of the code, but it is not such an offense when it is kept on the grounds of an incorporated race association and the sole and exclusive purpose for which it is kept is for the special classes of betting defined and limited by the sub-section of 204."

RACING COMMISSION'S REPORT.

Albany, N. Y., March 27.—The State Racing Commission in presenting its report to the legislature, says the season of 1906 was the greatest in the history of the sport of racing. The report tells in detail of the success of the bureau of breeding as established with the approval and support of the commission by the Jockey Club.

"The primary, as it is in fact the exclusive, purpose of this bureau," says the report, "was the selection and distribution throughout the state of high class thoroughbred horses for general public service at a nominal fee."

The five per cent. tax for agricultural purposes amounted to $201,053. It was made up as follows: Westchester Racing Association ..... $29,933 Coney Island Jockey Club ..... 45,289 Brooklyn Jockey Club ..... 34,869 Brighton Beach Racing Association ..... 32,773 Saratoga Association ..... 20,283 Queens County Jockey Club ..... 15,742 Metropolitan Jockey Club ..... 16,456 Buffalo Racing Association ..... 5,614 Total ..... $201,053

BILLIE HIBBS IS A SWAYBACK.

Billie Hibbs, the brother to Pater, which won the first race of the eastern season for two-year-olds, is a swayback, and the sway is most peculiar.
The colt has perfect shoulders and withers, but for a few inches just back of the withers there is a decided dip. It was necessary to have a saddle made to fit into this sway. Otherwise the colt is comely and he is fast. He is named for William B. Hibbs, a member of the Executive Committee of the Washington Jockey Club. George Howard, who hopes, through the prowess of the colt, to act as the host at the dinner to follow the running of the Dinner Stakes next Saturday, is also a member of the Executive Committee of the Washington Jockey Club.

TWO MORE DEATHS AT OAKLAND.

Oakland, Cal., March 27.—James Milley, a sheet writer employed during the winter by the Alamo Club and well-known all over the country, died today of pneumonia after a three-days' illness. The deceased was formerly employed by George C. Bennett.
Jack Reavey, another old-time California trainer died suddenly at Emeryville yesterday.

Fred Merkel, the well-known trainer, is lying critically ill at the German Hospital in San Francisco.

SPORT FOR THE "PINK COAT" RIDERS.

Four Races for Hunters at Benning—Three with the Liverpool Jump Barred.

The Trial Steeplechase, which is to be decided today, is the first of four cross-country events for gentlemen riders and hunters at the Benning meeting. The other three are the Chevy Chase Hunters' Steeplechase, April 6; the Southern Steeplechase, April 11, and the Eighth Spring Hunters' Steeplechase, April 13, the last day of the meeting. In the race today and the next named two the Liverpool jump is barred. This is a new departure at Benning and was suggested at the meeting of the United Hunts Racing Association last October.

The race of today is for hunters, five-year-olds and upward, qualified under the rules of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association or the Canadian Hunt Association, that have been hunted during the seasons of 1905, 1906 or 1907.

The Chevy Chase Steeplechase is for hunters five years old and upward, that have been hunted during the season of 1905, 1906, or 1907, owned by members of the Chevy Chase Hunt or by members of the recognized hunt clubs in the state of Virginia. The horses are to be ridden by members of hunt clubs in hunting costume. The entries to this race will close next Saturday at 3 p. m.
If there are not eight entries and five starters the race may be declared off at the option of the stewards.

The conditions of the Southern Steeplechase as to the number of entries and starters are the same as in the Chevy Chase, but it is a handicap and the horses must be the property of members of the hunt clubs in the states of Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania and the District of Columbia, though it is not specified that they shall have been hunted during any given season. The entries will close next Saturday and the weights will be announced April 8. The horses must be ridden by members of the clubs represented in hunting costume.

Like the Chevy Chase the distance is the full course, about two miles and a half. The Eighth Spring Hunters' Steeplechase, like the race of today, is open to horses that have been regularly hunted during the seasons of 1906 or 1907 and properly qualified under the rules of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association or Canadian Hunt Association. The distance is about two miles and a half.

Entries close Saturday, April 6. There are penalties and allowances, but no horse can carry more than 180 pounds or less than 130 pounds.

Lord Boanerges rushed to the front at once and taking a long lead was never closely approached.
Gold Sifter was saved in the early running and finished fast and resolutely. Toddles was speedy, but was short and will improve. Quadrille ran well to the stretch, but was tiring badly at the finish. Umbrella was never a contender.

will improve. Superstition showed speed, but tired badly in the stretch. Bob Callahan Jr. and Inspector Bird both raced very green. Gun Cotton will show improvement.

Went to post at 3:56. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third the same.
Tudor took the lead early and despite losing several lengths by a wide turn into the stretch came out fast and won cantering. Jack McKeon ran well, saved ground on the stretch and finished resolutely.
Town Topics also went wide at the head of the stretch and his race was a fairly good one. Grevilla ran much better than true form and never a contender. The winner was entered for $1,600; no bid.
Overweights—Town Topics, 3 pounds.

Winner—B. m. by Golden Garter—Love Knot (trained by T. F. Coles).
Went to post at 4:39. Off at once to a good start. Won ridden out; second driving; third the same.
Garterknot showed much the most speed and, though well through out, put up an excellent race, but had to be hustled along in the stretch to withstand the challenge of Northville. The latter ran a wonderfully game race and stood a long stretch drive well in a vain effort to catch the winner. Gus Strauss fenced cleanly, but tired in the stretch and should improve by the effort. Harry Baylor raced well, but seemed a trifle short. Frank Somers and Amanda H. were always outrun. Toots fell at the water jump. The winner was entered for $1,000; no bid.
Scratched—(67828) Dulcian, 130.

 Went to post at 2:33. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same; third easily. Vincentio got away well and closed up ground gradually, challenged on the last turn and outstayed the others in a hard stretch drive, showing sudden improvement. Alma Boy, after being carried wide on the first turn and shut off frequently, went through into the lead in the deep inside going on the last turn and tired finally. Flaunt set the pace to the far turn, where he dropped back, but came on and finished an easy third. I Told You, from a flying start, ran in close pursuit of Flaunt for six furlongs, then gave way as if short. Black Prince retired early. Crowshade finished well.  Winner—Ch. g. by Phutus—Bessie Gum (trained by W. Walker).
 Went to post at 2:57. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving; third the same. Edwin Gum was always within striking distance of the pacemakers, moved up on the last turn and finishing fast made good decisively in the stretch. Mary F. was in forward contention from the start and drew out in the last furlong into a fast going second. Supreme Court tired after close attendance on the leader, but finished a game third. Andrew Mack broke poorly and after boring out on the first turn and being generally mishandled was never dangerous. Pontotoc set a stiff pace for seven furlongs before he succumbed in the game effort. Rightful seemed sore and unable to raise a common gallop and his race should be thrown out.

 Went to post at 3:25. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Confessor broke slowly and was shut off early, but closed up rapidly on the outside and won out decisively after a sharp stretch brush with The Reprobate. The latter broke striding and ran lapped under a pull on the early pacemaker, then drew out on the far turn, but succumbed finally. Sheen ran fairly well only and can do much better. Dr. Sherman was shuffled back early, but closed a big gap in the middle running and loomed up menacingly in the stretch, but quit finally. Anvil, away poorly, steadily improved his position into a fast going fifth. Hugh McGowan is out of place in sprints. Spinosa showed early speed. The winner was entered for $800; no bid.

WILL MAKE IMPROVEMENTS.

New Orleans, La., March 27.—The executive committee of the Crescent City Jockey Club has decided to go ahead with improvements at the Fair Grounds. This means that the entire plant will be remodeled and that the Union Park grandstand and paddock will be shipped here and erected before next fall.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The Kentucky Derby will be run May 6. John Hynes has arrived at Gravesend from his farm in Connecticut with fifteen horses.

Grandpa has been entered for the Grand Annual Steeplechase to be run at the Brookline Country Club meeting in June. Grandpa won this stake last year.

"You can bet, but you mustn't do it with a roof over your head," said Nat Ray when some one at Benning asked him as to the recent decision of the Supreme Court in Canada.

Proposer, L. P. Holladay's jumper, went lame in his training at Benning and is to be shipped to H. G. Breckenridge's Catawba Farm in Virginia. He will be taken up again in the fall by T. F. Coles.

Puryear Durham, son of the late Hardy Durham, is now a telegraph operator at Lexington, Ky. It was his father's hope that he would become a jockey, but young Durham took on weight too rapidly and had to abandon the saddle.
